SUMMARY

A 22-year-old aspiring software engineer and web developer eager to build impactful web applications. Through project-based learning and continuous self-development, I have built a solid foundation in full-stack development and problem solving. Skilled in React, Node.js, Express.js, and database management, with hands-on experience developing real-world web applications. Proficient in leveraging AI-assisted development tools to enhance productivity, accelerate learning, improve code quality, and support efficient software development workflows.

EDUCATION

BS in Information Technology

PROJECT HISTORY

DigiBarangay

2025 – 2026

Technologies: React, Node.js, Express.js, MySQL, JWT Authentication

- Built a community bulletin board with real-time notifications for residents.
- Developed an online document request system to streamline barangay services.
- Implemented role-based access control for admin and resident user roles.
- Designed and managed a relational database for community records management.

Flow – Team Workspace App

2026

Technologies: React, Node.js, Express.js, MySQL, REST APIs, Python

- Built an online web-based workspace supporting multiple workspaces and task boards.
- Implemented task assignment features allowing team leads to delegate work to members.
- Designed RESTful API endpoints with JWT-secured authentication and middleware validation.
- Used Zod for request validation and bcrypt for secure password hashing.
- Developed a Python-based recommendation prototype to suggest task assignees using historical task performance data.
